

Monday 16th November

Adding -ly to adverbs. Remembering words ending in '-y' become '-ily' and words ending in '- le' become '-ly.'

Let's look at how words change their ending when adding -ly to adverbs.

-y becomes -ily e.g. happy becomes happily

-le becomes -ly e.g. horrible becomes horribly

Draw a line from each word to correct ending to turn these words in to adverbs:

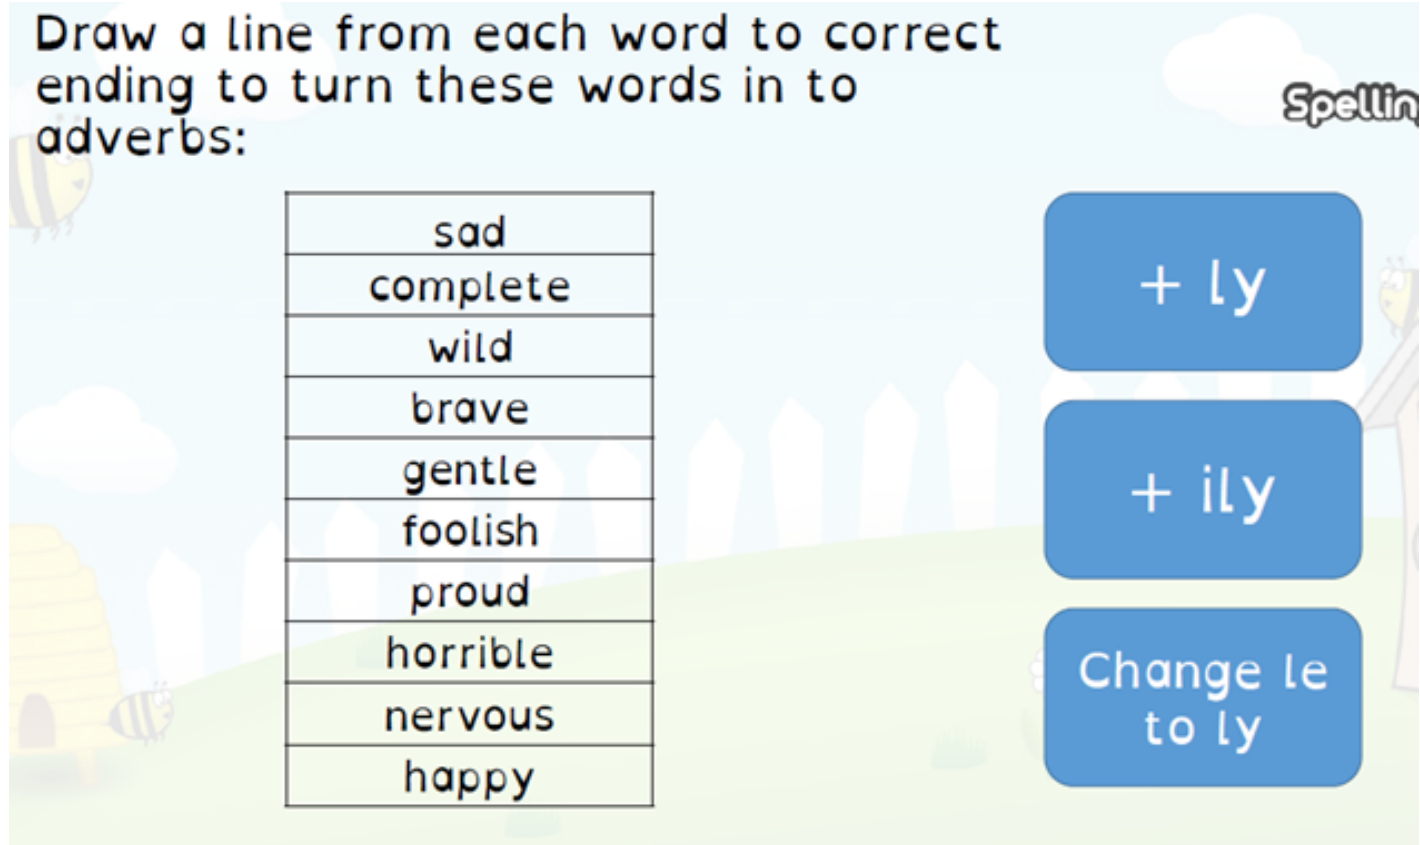

Spelling

sad
complete
wild
brave
gentle
foolish
proud
horrible
nervous
happy

+ ly

+ ily

Change le
to ly

Draw a line from each word to correct ending to turn these words in to adverbs: Answers:

Spell

sad	sadly
complete	completely
wild	wildly
brave	bravely
gentle	gently
foolish	foolishly
proud	proudly
horrible	horribly
nervous	nervously
happy	happily

+ ly

+ ily

Change le to ly

Task

+ly	+ily	change -le to -ily

Tuesday 17th November

LC: Can you match adverbs to sentences?

- 1) The mother rocked her baby _____.
- 2) I _____ stepped onto the ice.
- 3) _____ , the party was over.
- 4) I _____ understand your decision.
- 5) The lion attacked its prey _____.

sadly

completely

wildly

gently

bravely

Wednesday 18th November

LC: Can you match adverbs to sentences?

1) The boy _____ ran across the road.

2) The man smiled _____ at his son.

3) The little mouse approached the cheese
_____.

4) The teacher clapped _____ at the children's achievements.

5) Unfortunately, the experiment went _____

wrong!      nervously      foolishly      proudly      happily      horribly

Thursday 19th November

LC: To create a sentence for each spelling

Spellings	Create a sentence for each of your spellings. You get 1 point for each spelling used correctly. For every sentence that you can start with a spelling, you will be awarded 2 bonus points.
sadly
completely
wildly
bravely
gently
foolishly
proudly
horribly
nervously
happily	