

Thursday 7th January 2020

Personal Pronouns

LO: To use personal pronouns.

Personal Pronouns

A noun is a word that is a person, place or thing.

A pronoun can be used in place of a noun

A personal pronoun is used in place of a noun that is a person or thing.

Emma loves chocolate. She could eat it all day.

Personal pronouns are used so that you don't have to repeat the same words in your writing.

Personal pronouns for people include...

I

they

me

you

him

he her she us

them

we

Personal pronouns for things include...

it

they

them

The following sentences do not use personal pronouns. Rewrite each sentence using a personal pronoun.

1. Mike turned the fire on because Mike was cold.
2. Jane loves football and Jane plays football after school.
3. The rain poured down and the rain made a tremendous noise.
4. The car broke down because the car ran out of petrol.
5. Amir loves Saira, Amir bought Saira a ring.

Check your answers

1. Mike turned the fire on because he was cold.
2. Jane loves football and she plays it after school.
3. The rain poured down and it made a tremendous noise.
4. The car broke down because it ran out of petrol.
5. Amir loves Saira, he bought her a ring.

Personal Pronouns

In autobiographical writing personal pronouns are used all the time as the author is writing about themselves.

'I remember when I scored a last minute goal...'

